- 3.3 It is the Customer's responsibility to determine its selection of the Goods and to evaluate for itself whether the Goods are suitable for its anticipated purpose (even if such purpose is made known to the Supplier). The Customer will ensure that the Goods are only used for such intended purposes as are identified by the manufacturer of the Goods (whether the Supplier or a third party manufacturer).
- 3.4 The Customer shall be liable for and shall ensure that the Supplier's or the manufacturer's oral or written instructions are followed as to the storage, commissioning, installation, fixing, use and maintenance of the Goods or (if there are none) that good trade practice regarding the same (including the applicable laws, regulations, British Standards and guidelines on use of the relevant Goods) are complied with.

- 4.1 The Supplier shall ensure that:
- (a) each delivery of the Goods is accompanied by a delivery note which shows the date of the Order, all relevant Customer and Supplier reference numbers, the type and quantity of the Goods (including the code number of the Goods, where applicable) and, if the Order is being delivered by instalments, the outstanding balance of Goods remaining to be delivered; and
 - (b) if the Supplier requires the Customer to return any packaging materials to the Supplier, that fact is clearly stated on the delivery note. The Customer shall return such packaging materials as are required either:

 - (b) procure that, at the time anticipated for delivery of the Goods, the Delivery Location is in a condition which does not constitute a danger to vehicles, the Goods or the persons responsible for carriage of such Goods.
- 4.4 Delivery of the Goods shall be completed on the Goods' arrival at the Delivery Location.
- 4.5 Any dates quoted for delivery are approximate only, and the time of delivery is not of the essence. The Supplier shall not be liable for any delay in delivery of the Goods that is caused by a Force Majeure Event, a change to customs procedures or the Customer's failure to provide the Supplier with adequate delivery instructions or any other instructions that are relevant to the supply of the Goods.
- 4.6 If the Supplier fails to deliver the Goods, its liability shall be limited to the cost of reasonably sourced replacement goods of similar description and quality in the cheapest market available, less the price of the Goods. The Supplier shall have no liability for any failure to deliver the Goods to the extent that such failure is caused by a Force Majeure Event or the Customer's failure to provide the Supplier with adequate delivery instructions or any other instructions that are relevant to the supply of the Goods.
- 4.7 If the Supplier is unable to deliver the Goods due to the Customer's breach of condition 4.3 then, except where such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event or the Supplier's failure to comply with its obligations under the Contract:

- 4.9 The Customer shall not be entitled to reject Goods if the Supplier delivers up to and including 2.5% more or less than the quantity of Goods ordered, but a pro rata adjustment shall be made to the relevant invoice on receipt of notice from the Customer that the wrong quantity of Goods was delivered.

- 4.10 The Supplier may deliver the Goods by instalments, which shall be invoiced and paid for separately. Each instalment shall constitute a separate Contract. Any delay in delivery or defect in an instalment shall not entitle the Customer to cancel any other instalment.

- (c) the Customer (if asked to do so by the Supplier) returns such Goods to the Supplier's place of business at the Customer's cost, the Supplier shall, at its option, repair or replace the defective Goods, or refund the price of the defective Goods in full, which shall be the sole remedy available to the Customer in such circumstances.

- 5.3 The Supplier shall not be liable for any Goods' failure to comply with the warranty set out in condition 5.1 in any of the following events:

- (a) the Customer uses or installs any of the consumable Goods which render them incapable of further use or resale;
- (b) the Customer makes any further use of such Goods after giving notice in accordance with condition 5.2;
- (c) the defect arises because the Customer failed to follow the Supplier's or the manufacturer's oral or written instructions as to the storage, commissioning, installation, fixing, use and maintenance of the Goods or (if there are none) good trade practice regarding the same (including the applicable laws, regulations, British Standards and guidelines on use of the relevant Goods);
- (d) the defect arises as a result of the Supplier following any drawing, design or Specification supplied by the Customer;

- (e) the Customer alters or repairs such Goods without the written consent of the Supplier;
 - (f) the defect arises as a result of fair wear and tear, wilful damage (including vandalism), negligence, or abnormal storage or working conditions;
 - (g) the defect arises as a result of the presence of chemically active materials not previously notified to and agreed with the Supplier;
 - (h) the defect arises as a result of the presence of associated materials or products which affect or are capable of affecting the mechanical performance or weather-tightness of the Goods (including sheets, purlins, spacers and rooflights);
 - (i) the defect arises as a result of a Force Majeure Event; or
 - (j) the Goods differ from their description or any applicable Specification as a result of changes made to ensure they comply with applicable statutory or regulatory requirements.
- 5.4 Except as provided in this condition 5, the Supplier shall have no liability to the Customer in respect of the Goods' failure to comply with the warranty set out in condition 5.1.
- 5.5 The terms implied by sections 13 to 15 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979 are, to the fullest extent permitted by law, excluded from the Contract.
- 5.6 No warranty provided by the Supplier shall act to exclude, limit or relieve any other third party from their duties or obligations in relation to the storage, commissioning, installation, use and/or maintenance of the Goods (including their ongoing compliance with any applicable laws, regulations and guidelines and good trade practice relating to the same).
- 5.7 If the Supplier is prevented from providing the remedy pursuant to condition 5.2 due to acts required of the Customer and/or any third party, resolution of such remedy by the Supplier shall be suspended until the required acts of the Customer and/or the relevant third party have been completed.
- 5.8 These Conditions shall apply to any repaired or replacement Goods supplied by the Supplier.
- 6. Title and risk
- 6.1 Risk in the Goods shall pass to the Customer on completion of delivery of such Goods.
- 6.2 Title to the Goods shall pass to the Customer upon the Supplier receiving payment in full (in cash or cleared funds) for the Goods and any other goods that the Supplier has supplied to the Customer in respect of which payment has become due, in which case title to the Goods shall pass at the time of payment of all such sums.

- (c) maintain the Goods in satisfactory condition and keep them insured against all risks for their full price from the date of delivery;
- (d) notify the Supplier immediately if it becomes subject to any of the events listed in condition 11.1;
- (e) give the Supplier such information relating to the Goods as the Supplier may require from time to time; and
- (f) permit or procure permission for the Supplier, its agents and authorised representatives to enter any premises of the Customer or of any third party where the Goods are stored in order to inspect whether the Customer is in compliance with this condition 6.3 and/or recover the Goods.

6.4 If before title to the Goods passes to the Customer the Customer becomes subject to an Insolvency Event (as defined in condition 11.1), then, without limiting any other right or remedy the Supplier may have:

- (a) the Customer must immediately notify the Supplier of the event;
- (b) the Supplier may at any time:
 - (i) require the Customer to deliver up all Goods in its possession which have not been resold, or irrevocably incorporated into another product; and
 - (ii) if the Customer fails to do so promptly, enter any premises of the Customer or of any third party where the Goods are stored in order to recover them.

7. Goods Recall

7.1 If the Customer becomes aware of or is the subject of a request, court order or other directive of a governmental or regulatory authority to withdraw any Goods from the market (Recall Notice) it must immediately notify the Supplier in writing and attach a copy of the Recall Notice.

7.2 Unless required by law, the Customer may only undertake a recall or withdrawal of the Goods from the market with the written permission of the Supplier and in accordance with clause 7.4.

7.3 The Supplier may issue a notice to recall or withdraw the Goods from the market (Voluntary Recall Notice) if:

- (a) promptly comply with any Recall Notice or Voluntary Recall Notice; and
- (b) give such assistance as the Supplier reasonably requires to recall or withdraw the Goods from the market, and promptly comply with the Supplier's instructions about the process of implementing that recall or withdrawal, including, for the avoidance of doubt, the issuing of any communication to any third parties regarding that recall or withdrawal.

- 8.2 The Supplier shall use reasonable endeavours to perform the Services and/or Repair Services by any date specified in the Order, but any such dates shall be estimates only and time shall not be of the essence for performance of the Services and/or Repair Services.
- 8.3 The Customer shall provide the Supplier with such data and information as the Supplier reasonably requests to enable it to perform the Services and/or Repair Services and create the Deliverables. All Deliverables are created based on specific data and information provided to the Supplier by or on behalf of the Customer.  - (d) any reliance on or presumptions drawn from the Deliverables in relation to differing data and information from that which was provided by the Customer to the Supplier for the provision of the Services or in relation to differing projects or sites to those identified by the Customer for these purposes;

- (e) the volumes, accuracy or quality of the Goods which may be ordered by the Customer through the use of the Deliverables;
 - (f) the Deliverables infringing the Intellectual Property Rights or other rights of any third party.
- 8.7 Nothing in this Contract, nor any other materials or documents issued by the Supplier including the Deliverables, shall create or be deemed to create any obligation, whether expressed or implied by the Supplier under the Construction (Design and Management) Regulations 2015 in whatever capacity.
- 8.8 The limitations in this Contract are necessary in order to allow the Supplier to provide the Services and Deliverables without charge. If the Customer requires greater protection then the Supplier may have to modify the limitations and extend its guarantees in return for the payment of a price for the Services to be agreed in writing between the parties.

9. Intellectual Property

- 9.1 The Customer acknowledges that all Intellectual Property Rights used by or subsisting in the Goods are and shall remain the sole property of the Supplier or (as the case may be) the third party rights owner.

This condition 9.4 shall survive termination of the Contract.
- 9.5 The Supplier may inform third parties that it provides or has provided the Goods to the Customer. The Customer licenses the Supplier to use its name and logo(s) for this sole purpose.

10. Price and payment

- 10.1 The price of the Goods and/or Repair Services shall be the price set out in the Supplier's written acceptance of the Order.
- 10.2 Unless otherwise agreed in writing the Services are provided without charge.

 - (b) any request by the Customer to change the delivery date(s), quantities or types of Goods ordered, or the Specification; or
 - (c) any delay caused by any instructions of the Customer or failure of the Customer to give the Supplier adequate or accurate information or instructions.

- 10.7 The Customer shall pay the invoice in full and in cleared funds by the end of the month following the month the invoice was dated. Payment shall be made to the bank account nominated in writing by the Supplier. Time of payment is of the essence.
- 10.8 If the Customer queries or disputes any part of an invoice then they will raise such a query or dispute within 10 Business Days of the invoice date. Any query or dispute raised after this time will not be valid.
- 10.9 Payment shall fall due in accordance with condition 10.7 and the Supplier shall accordingly be entitled to sue for the price once it is due, despite the fact that title to the Goods has not passed to the Customer.
- 10.10 If the Customer fails to make any payment due to the Supplier under the Contract by the due date for payment, then the Customer shall pay interest on the overdue amount at the rate of 3% per annum above the Bank of England's base rate from time to time. Such interest shall accrue on a daily basis from the due date until actual payment of the overdue amount, whether before or after judgment. The Customer shall pay the interest together with the overdue amount.
- 10.11 The Customer shall pay all amounts due under the Contract in full without any set-off, counterclaim, deduction or withholding (except for any deduction or withholding required by law). The Supplier may at any time, without limiting any other rights or remedies, set off any amount owing to it by the Customer against any amount payable by the Supplier to the Customer.

10.12 Any offer of trade credit by the Supplier to the Customer will be subject to the Supplier receiving, upon request, two approved trade references and one banker's reference, together with such other company information as the Supplier may request. Any trade credit offered shall be subject to such conditions as specified by the Supplier in writing.

11. Termination and suspension

11.1 Without limiting its other rights or remedies, the Supplier may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Customer if:

- (a) the Customer fails to make payment due under any invoice and fails to remedy that breach within 5 Business Days of being notified in writing to do so;
- (b) the Customer (being a body corporate) is declared or becomes insolvent, has a moratorium declared in respect of any of its indebtedness, enters into administration, receivership, administrative receivership or liquidation or threatens to do any of these things or takes or suffers any similar action in any jurisdiction or any step is taken (including the making of an application, the entering into of a board resolution or the giving of any notice) by it or by any other person in respect of any of these circumstances (an Insolvency Event);
- (c) the Customer (being an individual) is declared bankrupt, enters into any composition or arrangement with his creditors, has a receiver appointed to any of his assets, or ceases to carry on business or takes or suffers any similar action in any jurisdiction or any step is taken (including the making of an application or the giving of any notice) by him or any other person in respect of any of these circumstances) (also an Insolvency Event) (or, the Customer being a partnership, has a partner to whom any Insolvency Event applies); or
- (d) the Customer suspends, or threatens to suspend, or ceases or threatens to cease to carry on all or a substantial part of its business.

11.2 Without limiting its other rights or remedies, the Supplier may suspend provision of the Goods or Services under the Contract or any other contract between the Customer and the Supplier if the Customer becomes subject to an Insolvency Event, or the Supplier reasonably believes that the Customer is about to become subject to an Insolvency Event, or if the Customer fails to pay any amount due under this Contract on the due date for payment.

11.3 On termination of the Contract for any reason:

- (a) the Customer shall immediately pay to the Supplier all of the Supplier's outstanding unpaid invoices and interest and, in respect of Repair Services and/or Services supplied but for which no invoice has been submitted, the Supplier shall submit an invoice, which the Customer shall pay immediately on receipt; and
- (b) the Customer shall return any Deliverables which have not been fully paid for. If the Customer fails to do so, the Supplier may enter the Customer's premises and take possession of them. Until they have been returned, the Customer shall be solely responsible for their safe keeping and will not use them for any purpose other than receiving and using the Services.

11.4 Termination of the Contract, however arising, shall not affect any of the parties' rights, remedies, obligations and liabilities that have accrued as at termination.

11.5 Conditions which expressly or by implication survive termination of the Contract shall continue in full force and effect.

12. Limitation of liability

12.1 Nothing in these Conditions shall limit or exclude the Supplier's liability for:

- (a) death or personal injury caused by its negligence, or the negligence of its employees, agents or subcontractors (as applicable);
- (b) fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation;
